EXAMINER'S NOTES

Case No. CM ETO 13241 Name: Ekpinski

GCM Jurisdiction: 7th Armd Div.

SERIOUS ERRORS AND QUESTIONS:

Ct. imposed sen. of 1 yr. - asked for Clemency. The R.T.A. sentence is nothing more than a money forfeiture. Seems to me manslaughter calls for a more severe sentence and that clemency should be reflected in suspension thereof.

AW 93 involuntary manslaughter - carelessly killing pfc T. by shooting with an M-1 rifle Clemency by all members who took part in trial — R/A's action gives effect to this recommendation.

COMMENTS:

SPECIAL COURT

SENT: (6 mos (HL) and forf $20 per mo for 6 mos) suspended

MINOR ERRORS AND IRREGULARITIES:
(Check those requiring correspondence)

accd and victim were "fooling around" - gun went off when it was in accd's hand (R-7) = accd had leaned his rifle against the book case & picked up another soldier's rifle instead of his own (R-7+8) = accd and victim were on friendly terms (R-11, 14) = MC Capt testified to victim's death from a rifle projectile (R-14) = accd made a sworn statement at trial re knowledge of events as described by other witnesses, gun went off as he was turning to go out the door (R-17) = accd picked up the wrong rifle (R-17).

Accidental shooting by accused of his friend.

3. EVIDENCE:

The issues in this case are simple and there is no substantial conflict in the evidence. The evidence shows that the accused and Private Knott were very good friends. They came into a certain room on the day in question. At that time Joe Carrubba's gun was lying against a bookcase. The gun was loaded. Accused did not notice Carrubba's rifle. Accused leaned his rifle against the bookcase. Knott came in later. They were joking with each other and the accused said, "Go on, I will shoot you." He picked up Carrubba's rifle, thinking that it was his own rifle, which was not loaded. In some way not explained, the rifle went off and Knott was struck and killed. The accused said, "Oh, my God, I didn't mean to do that," and similar words, and started to cry.

4. OPINION:

While the record does not show how the rifle which the accused had was discharged, it may be inferred from his statements that he pulled the trigger. There is no question but that the shooting was accidental and that the accused and the deceased were the best of friends. Under the circumstances, however, it is my opinion that the accused was guilty of gross and wanton negligence in connection with the shooting of Knott.

It is my opinion that the record is legally sufficient to support the findings and sentence, and that there are no errors which injuriously affect the substantial rights of the accused.

5. ESTIMATE OF ACCUSED:

Interview of the accused elicited the following information:

Accused is a white soldier, 25 years of age, who was born in South Bend, Ind. He lived in the latter state until entering military service. He has had an eighth grade education. Both of his parents are living. He has four brothers, two of whom are in service, and he has no sisters. He is married and has a child one year of age. In civil life he worked as a carpenter and earned from 50 to 80¢ an hour. His wife does not work and is not self-supporting. He has had no trouble in civil life.

Accused was inducted on 27 March 1942 and received basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky. He joined this Division in June 1942. He had not been court martialed before. He was slightly wounded, but did not report his injury and did not receive the Purple Heart. Accused impressed me as being very sincere and as being still very much upset over the death of his "buddy".

6. APPROPRIATENESS OF SENTENCE:

The sentence is legal and is entirely appropriate to the facts of this case. Four of the five members of the court which tried this case have signed a petition for clemency which is attached to the record of trial. The accused was in confinement for about four months pending trial. In view of these facts I recommend that clemency be granted as more fully set forth in the following paragraph.

7. RECOMMENDATIONS:

I recommend that the sentence be approved but that all of the sentence which is in excess of confinement at hard labor for six months and forfeitures of $20 per month for a like period be remitted; that the sentence be ordered executed, but that the execution of that portion thereof relating to confinement at hard labor be suspended.

Action to carry these recommendations into effect, should they be approved, is attached hereto.

5. EVIDENCE:

The issues in this case are simple and there is no substantial conflict in the evidence. The evidence shows that the accused and Private Knott were very good friends. They came into a certain room on the day in question. At that time Joe Carrubba's gun was lying against a bookcase. The gun was loaded. Accused did not notice Carrubba's rifle. Accused leaned his rifle against the bookcase. Knott came in later. They were joking with each other and the accused said, "Go on, I will shoot you." He picked up Carrubba's rifle, thinking that it was his own rifle, which was not loaded. In some way not explained, the rifle went off and Knott was struck and killed. The accused said, "Oh, my God, I didn't mean to do that," and similar words, and started to cry.

4. OPINION:

While the record does not show how the rifle which the accused had was discharged, it may be inferred from his statements that he pulled the trigger. There is no question but that the shooting was accidental and that the accused and the deceased were the best of friends. Under the circumstances, however, it is my opinion that the accused was guilty of gross and wanton negligence in connection with the shooting of Knott.

5. ESTIMATE OF ACCUSED:

Interview of the accused elicited the following information:

Accused is a white soldier, 35 years of age, who was born in South Bend, Ind. He lived in the latter state until entering military service. He has had an eighth grade education. Both of his parents are living. He has four brothers, two of whom are in service, and he has no sisters. He is married and has a child one year of age. In civil life he worked as a carpenter and earned from 50 to 80¢ an hour. His wife does not work and is not self-supporting. He has had no trouble in civil life.

Accused was inducted on 27 March 1942 and received basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky. He joined this Division in June 1942. He had not been court martialed before. He was slightly wounded, but did not report his injury and did not receive the Purple Heart. Accused impressed me as being very sincere and as being still very much upset over the death of his "buddy".

6. APPROPRIATENESS OF SENTENCE:

The sentence is legal and is entirely appropriate to the facts of this case. Four of the five members of the court which tried this case have signed a petition for clemency which is attached to the record of trial. The accused was in confinement for about four months pending trial. In view of these facts I recommend that clemency be granted as more fully set forth in the following paragraph.

7. RECOMMENDATIONS:

I recommend that the sentence be approved but that all of the sentence which is in excess of confinement at hard labor for six months and forfeitures of $20 per month for a like period be remitted; that the sentence be ordered executed, but that the execution of that portion thereof relating to confinement at hard labor be suspended.

Action to carry these recommendations into effect, should they be approved, is attached hereto.

Report of Investigation of Charges.

1. The charges herewith have been investigated, as directed. The accused was informed at the outset of the purpose of the investigation, was acquainted with the charges against him and the evidence upon which they were based. His rights and privileges during and incident to the investigation were fully explained. Witnesses requested by him, and other witnesses whose expected testimony was not fully and satisfactorily indicated in statements attached to the charges (see page 25, M.C.M.) were thereafter, if reasonably available, examined by me in his presence. He was allowed to examine and cross examine witnesses as he wished, with my assistance, and to make such statements and arguments as he wished in his own behalf, after due warning as to his rights and privileges.

2. The Summary of Evidence attached hereto includes all the substantial evidence I have been able to find, for and against the accused, or sufficient evidence to fully establish whether each specification and charge can be sustained.

3. In my opinion the following specifications and charges are not sustained by the evidence: None

In my opinion he should not be eliminated from the service.

10. I recommend trial by General Court-Martial. This is recommended for the protection of subject enlisted man.

11. In arriving at my conclusions, I have considered not only the nature of the offenses and the evidence in this case, but I have likewise considered the age of the accused, his military service, the necessity for preserving the manpower of the Nation in the present emergency, of salvaging all possible military material, and the established policy of the War Department that trial by general court martial will be resorted to only when the charges can be disposed of in no other manner consistent with military discipline.

HEADQUARTERS 38TH ARMORED INFANTRY BATTALION
APO 257 U. S. ARMY

20 April 1945.

Following is an unsworn statement of Cpl. Walter J. Gapinski, 35 111 603, made in connection with the court-martial charges against him dated 27 November 1944 for violation of the 93d Article of War.

"On 27 November 1944 I started into the squa d billet. We had instructions from our commanding officer to keep our weapons unloaded while indoors, so I removed the clip from my rifle and put the clip in my hip pocket. When I entered the house I leaned my rifle against the bookcase. Pfc. Richard A. Knott, 14 120 856, came over to me and we were teasing each other. He picked up a can of my rations, saying, 'I'll take this'. I said, 'No, you don't, Joe'.

When he started walking away I picked up my rifle from the bookcase and when I turned to face him I pointed it in his direction. The rifle went off and the bullet struck Pfc. Richard A. Knott. I do not remember attempting to fire the weapon. During the entire time I knew Pfc. Richard A. Knott we never had an argument. I am very anxious to face trial and clear my name."

UNITED STATES : REPORT OF STAFF JUDGE ADVOCATE

v. : TO THE COMMANDING GENERAL,

Corporal Walter J. Gapinski, 35111603, Company "B", 38th Armored Infantry Battalion. : 7TH ARMORED DIVISION, ON COURT MARTIAL CHARGES.

1. The attached charges in the above-entitled case, dated 27 November 1944, together with the report of investigation thereof and papers therewith connected, have been referred to this office for action in accordance with the provisions of the 70th Article of War and paragraph 35b, MCM, 1928. After due and careful consideration thereof the following report and advice are submitted:

a. The charge is correct and complete in form.

b. The charge is appropriate to the indicated competent evidence in the case.

c. The specification states an offense cognizable by courts-martial. The Specification has been corrected by the undersigned so as to eliminate Serial Numbers (App 4, MCM, 1928).

d. There is nothing in these papers to indicate any reason for a belief that accused may be mentally defective or deranged, either temporarily or permanently.

2. The investigation of the charges does not substantially comply with the provisions of the 70th Article of War, as opportunity was not given accused to present evidence in his own behalf or cross-examine the witnesses against him.

"At such investigation full opportunity shall be given the accused to present anything he may desire in his own behalf either in defense or mitigation, and the investigating officer shall examine available witnesses requested by the accused" (par 35a, MCM, 1928, AW 70).

"The provisions of AW 70 with reference to investigating charges are mandatory and there must be a substantial compliance therewith before charges can legally be referred for trial. A court-martial is without jurisdiction to try an accused upon charges referred to it for trial without having been first investigated in substantial compliance with the provisions of AW 70 and, in such a case, the court-martial proceedings are void ab initio" (Dig Ops JAG, 1912-1940, Sec 428 (1)).

3. Investigation by the undersigned reveals that accused on 28 November 1944 was transferred from Co "B", 38th Armd Inf Bn, to Co "C", 48th Armd Inf Bn, and that on 2 December 1944 accused was evacuated as a non-battle casualty to 41st Evacuation Hospital; that the 48th Armd Inf Bn still has the service records of accused, and he may be returned to this organization.

4. In view of the foregoing it is recommended that if accused is returned to this command the charges be returned to the investigating officer for completion of investigation; that if accused is not returned to this command the charges and accompanying papers be forwarded for appropriate disposition.

TO : Commanding Officer, 38th Armd Inf Bn., APO 257, U. S. Army.

1. Investigation of Charges in Case of U. S. vs Cpl Walter J. Gapinski, 35 111 603, reveal the following:

a. Pfc Alfred L. Johnson, 34 583 355 Med. Det. 38th A. I. Bn.
"He knows both Gapinski and Knott and had no knowledge of any trouble between the two men. He was in his own billet, two doors from the scene of the shooting, and arrived at the scene approximately 5 minutes after the shooting. Knott was lying on his back in the doorway and was dead at that time. Gapinski was lying face down on his bed sobbing. Knott was very quiet man and everyones friend.

b. Pvt Peter P. Lauriola, 32 229 376, Med. Det. 38th A. I. Bn.

He heard them kidding and he looked around when Knott approached. He heard Gapinski say, "Go on, I'll shoot you" then the shot was fired. Two rifles were leaning against the book rack when Gapinski picked up one. To his knowledge there was no hard feelings between the two men. Age (nearest birthday)	:	35 Years
Length of service	:	3 Years
Character of service (prior to this offense)	:	Satisfactory
Previous convictions	:	None
Restoration probable? (if convicted and sentenced to be dishonorably discharged)	:	Yes

b. SUMMARY OF THE CHARGES. Each specification alleges, in correct form, an offense under the Article of War alleged to have been violated.

Violation of A.W. No.	Gist of Offenses
93rd	Did at, APO 257, U. S. Army, on or about 27 November 1944, willfully, feloniously, and unlawfully kill Private First Class Richard A. Knott, by shooting him with a rifle, U. S. Calibre .30, M-1.

3. On or about 27 November 1944 accused and the deceased soldier entered a building where the other men of the company were eating. As the accused and deceased soldier entered the room, they were kidding and teasing each other. Accused was heard to say, "Go on, I'll shoot you." Then a shot was fired, and accused cried, "Oh My God, No," and went into another room. After the shooting the deceased fell on the floor and died within a few minutes.

4. The evidence indicates that before entering the room, accused removed the clip from his rifle, and after entering leaned his rifle against a book case. After getting into the room the deceased picked up a can of accused's rations, saying, "I'll take this." Accused said, "No, you don't Joe." When the deceased started to walk away, accused picked up his rifle and pointed it in the direction of the deceased, at which time the weapon was discharged.

5. The evidence submitted is sufficient to establish a prima facie case. In view of the evidence submitted and the nature of the charges, I recommend that the case be referred to a general court-martial for trial.

A. No, Sir. I never saw the man.

Q. Did you ever have occasion to examine the body of Private First Class Richard Knott PRESIDENT: The court will be adjourned until such time as the witness can be brought before it.

A. The identification was that of Richard Knott. Serial number I have with me.

PROSECUTION: The accused is at present a member of the Air Corps, on indefinite detached service with the 7th Armored Division.

PROSECUTION: The Prosecution rests.

DEFENSE: It is stipulated by and between the Defense, the accused, and the Prosecution that if Private Samuel J. Gapinski and Pfc Richard A. Knott; that on or about 27 November 1944, upon entering his billet, he had placed his rifle against the book rack; that while eating, with his back to thd door, he heard Gapinski and Knott come in, and that they were teasing each other; that he heard a shot and saw Knott fall to the floor; that he picked up a rifle lying by Knott's body, and found that it was his own rifle and that it was loaded; that he then looked at Gapinski's rifle, where it stood by the book rack, and found it to be empty, with the safety off.

PROSECUTION: The Prosecution so stipulates.

DEFENSE: The Defense so stipulates.

DEFENSE: The accused has had his rights as a witness explained to him and he elects to take the stand under oath and testify in his own behalf.

The President explained to the accused his rights as a witness and the accused still desired to take the stand under oath.

The accused was sworn and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

Questions by the Prosecution.

Q. State your name, rank, organization.
A. Walter J. Gapinski, Corporal, 71st Troop Carrier Squadron, 434th Troop Carrier Group, APO 133.

Q. Are you the accused in this case?
A. Yes, Sir.

Questions by the Defense.

Q. Did you know Private Richard Knott?
A. I did. He was one of my best friends.

Q. On the morning of 27 November 1944, did you take your rifle to breakfast?
A. I did.

Q. And when you returned was it loaded or unloaded?
A. It was unloaded.

Q. When did you unload it?
A. Before I entered the house and I put the ammunition in my hip pocket.

Q. What did you do with the rifle?
A. I leaned it against a book rack. It was a piece of furniture. They called it a book case, but it was a shelf.

Q. Was anyone in the room when you came in?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Did anyone came into the room after you did?
A. They came into the room and I didn't pay any attention to them, one, two or three fellows came in.

Q. What were you doing at that time?
A. I was just wiping my mess kit?

Q. Did Private Knott come into the room after you did?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Tell the court what happened when he came into the room.
A. He came into the room. I was facing the door of the room as he entered. He passed by me and he reached for one of my rations. He said he was going to eat the ration. I said "Save it for Supper, Joe". We called each other "Joe", and I said "No,Joe" and he said "I will take it, Joe". We used some cuss words, it was a habit among us.

Q. At this time did you have the rifle in your hands or not?
A. I picked up the rifle after he was behind me.

Q. What were you doing with that rifle?
A. I was at that time ready to go out to battalion headquarters. Well, Sir, just before I go out we kept on teasing, Knott and I. He crossed on my right and I made the left turn towards the door and the gun went off in my hand. I couldn't tell exactly what happened. I see Knott drop after that. I don't know nothing for an hour.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Questions by the Prosecution.

Q. Do you remember picking the rifle up?
A. Yes, Sir, it was a habit we had of all the time putting your rifle and mess kit by your bed and I went to pick up that rifle with my left hand, which my habit was, and switching to my right.

Q. Where was that rifle when you picked it up?
A. By the book case.

Q. At the time you picked that rifle up, did you notice another rifle against the book case?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Can you recall seeing that rifle by your bed?
A. At that time I just picked it up without looking at it, thinking it was my own rifle.

Q. Do you remember saying just before the shot was fired some words to the effect "I'LL shoot you"?
A. It could be that we used words like that. That was between us. We always talked like that.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Questions by the President.

Q. Were you still joking when you started out?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Do you remember what you were joking about?
A. About the rations.

Q. Do you remember making the statement "Go on, I'll shoot you"?
A. I don't recall all the words. We used all kinds of words, "Chop your head off", "Knock your brains out", always something like that. As a matter of fact back in civilian life I was a professional boxer and I wouldn't need a rifle to kill anyone.

RE DIRECT EXAMINATION

Questions by the Defense.

Q. Do you remember using those words?
A. Sir, I couldn't exactly say if I used those words.

Q. Was all this kidding in fun?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Had you had the rifle in your hands before you started out?
A. Yes, Sir. I wiped my mess kit and I picked up the wrong rifle.

Q. Was that the place for your rifle?
A. Yes, Sir, it was by my own bed.

FURTHER QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Questions by the President.

Q. Did you pull the trigger intentionally on that rifle?
A. No, Sir, I don't recall how it happened. The gun was loose in my hands and when it was fired it fell out of my hands. I didn't know what to do, it fell out of my hands.

Questions by Major Ratowsky.

Q. Did Knott push against you and cause the gun to go off accidentally?
A. No, Sir, he couldn't. I don't think he was that close. He was on my right and I went to face the door. At that time the shot was fired, his left side was facing me.

There being no further questions, the accused was excused and resumed his seat.

The Prosecution announced that it had nothing further to offer.

The defense had no further testimony to offer.

SUBJECT: Plea for Clemency.
TO : COMMANDING GENERAL, 7th Armd Div, APO 257, U. S. Army.

1. As provided in Par. 81, MCM 1928, the following Plea for Clemency in the case of Corporal Walter J. Gapinski, formerly of Company B, 48th Armored Infantry Battalion, is submitted.

2. It appears from the evidence that:
   a. The accused was not habitually careless in the use of firearms, but on the contrary was known to be unusually careful about handling and unloading his piece.
   b. At the time of the accident, Corporal Gapinski had unloaded his rifle and placed the ammunition in his hip pocket.
   c. Private Carrubba's loaded rifle was placed by Corporal Gapinski's bed contrary to their usual custom, which was for each man to keep his weapon by his own bed, and Corporal Gapinski picked it up without realizing that it was not his own.
   d. The weapon was not discharged by any deliberate or careless act, such as intentionally pulling the trigger under the impression that the gun was unloaded, but went off without any conscious act on the part of the accused.

3. An interview of the accused will show that he does not possess a high degree of neuro-muscular coordination, and could easily fumble and touch the trigger without actual culpable negligence.

4. In view of the above facts it appears that the shooting was a bona fide accident.

5. The law recognizes and punishes two general kinds of involuntary manslaughter: (1) where the death occurs as the result of a wrongful act by the accused (in which case the act must be inherently wrongful, and not merely the violation of a statute, or order), and (2) where the death results from culpable negligence on the part of the accused in the performance of a lawful act. A bona fide "accident" is not punishable by law.

6. In this case it appears that the victim was one of the best friends of the accused, and that the accused has already suffered greatly as a result of the accident.

7. An interview will also show that Corporal Gapinski possesses a high degree of family pride, and that the sentence of a dishonorable discharge and one year at hard labor would constitute a cruel punishment for what clearly appears to be a tragic accident.

8. Counsel for the defense therefore pray that the entire sentence be remitted.
