Henri-Chapelle U. S. Military Cemetery

Dear Mrs. Jorgenson:

This is to inform you that the remains of your loved one have been permanently interred, as recorded above, side by side with comrades who also gave their lives for their country.

Customary military funeral services were conducted over the grave at the time of burial.

After the Department of the Army has completed all final interments, the cemetery will be transferred, as authorized by the Congress, to the care and supervision of the American Battle Monuments Commission. The Commission also will have the responsibility for permanent construction and beautification of the cemetery, including erection of the permanent headstone. The headstone will be inscribed with the name exactly as recorded above, the rank or rating where appropriate, organization, State, and date of death. Any inquiries relative to the type of headstone or the spelling of the name to be inscribed thereon, should be addressed to the American Battle Monuments Commission, the central address of which is 1712 "G" Street, N. W., Washington 25, D. C.

While interment and beautification activities are in progress, the cemetery will not be open to visitors. However, upon completion thereof, due notice will be carried by the press.

You may rest assured that this final interment was conducted with fitting dignity and solemnity and that the grave-site will be carefully and conscientiously maintained in perpetuity by the United States Government.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Jorgenson:

The inclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains," pertaining to the final burial of the remains of your son, the late Corporal Francis V. Jorgenson, and signed by yourself, is returned for your final choice of option. I am sure you understand that this vital information is necessary to enable us to properly comply with the desires of the next of kin.

With sincere regret, I must inform you that it is not possible to fulfill your understandable desire to have the remains of your son buried in either the Flanders Field American Military Cemetery, or the Aisne Marne American Military Cemetery.

These European cemeteries were established as "Fields of Honor" permanent shrines to the memory of those Americans who died in Europe during World War I, and are dedicated in grateful remembrance of their sacrifice. They were planned as to size, design and construction for their burial, and when these were completed, they were closed to future interments and placed under the care of the American Battle Monuments Commission.

World War II Dead will be similarly honored with equally beautiful, stately cemeteries in Europe.

The American Military Cemetery at Henri-Chapelle, Belgium, has been dedicated as a permanent memorial to the heroic dead of World War II now temporarily resting at Henri-Chapelle, Belgium. May I suggest, if that cemetery has your approval, you line out the cemetery you have designated.

However, if you prefer that his remains be buried in a National Cemetery in the United States, please make your selection from the inclosed list of cemeteries having grave space still available.

QMGMF 293 Jorgenson, Francis V. SN 37 544 442 (Continued) 6 August 1947

Each grave of our honored dead buried in a permanent American Military Cemetery overseas will be marked with a headstone erected by the Government. At this writing, the style of headstone has not been determined, but you may rest assured that it will be equal in beauty of design, durability and inscription to those erected on the graves of the heroic dead of World War I.

These headstones are provided automatically by the Government; therefore, no application is required by the next of kin.

Your prompt cooperation in completing and returning the Disposition of Remains form to us will avoid further unnecessary delay and will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Jorgenson:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disinterment and final burial of the heroic dead of World War II. The Quartermaster General of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the honored dead. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlets, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Cemeteries," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship as set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to relinquish your rights to the next in line of kinship, please complete Part II of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please complete Part III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option 2, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Will you please complete the enclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, which requires no postage, within 30 days after its receipt by you? Its prompt return will avoid unnecessary delays.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Jorgenson:

The Army Effects Bureau has received from overseas some personal effects of your son, Corporal Francis V. Jorgenson.

These effects are being forwarded to you in one package.

Yours very truly,
