1.	Liaison Office	Oper. Sec. Repat Br. Atten: Mr. Elliott	20 Dec. 49	UNKNOWN X-100, Cambridge 1. Request that this office be informed when AGRC Paris replies to that portion of priority message dated 7 December 1949 (see copy on top of file attached) which asks for a list of CIL unknowns consolidated into X-100, Cambridge. 2. This is the first CIL Unknown case on which ABMC has had to order a headstone. It is their custom to specify the number of "Comrades in Arms" who make of a burial. CIL burials will pose something of a problem in working out an inscription. McDonald MC DONALD 8322

2.	Liaison Office	M & R Br. Admin. Div. OQMG	6 Jan. 50	1. Mr. Fisher, Operations Section, Repat Br., reported this date that a. The oversea command (AGRC, Paris) has requested and been granted authority by radiogram to disinter this CIL Unknown and to move it to the laboratory at Neuville for possible assistance in future identifications. No DD was issued for the original burial of X-100 in the permanent cemetery, CAMBRIDGE, nor will a DD be issued for the removal. b. I talked with Colonel Gallagher this date by telephone. He has not entered X-100 on his Plot Maps of the permanent cemetery at Cambridge. He has made a penciled notation on the PERMANENT CEMETERY REGISTER for CAMBRIDGE that X-100 has been removed to Neuville; he expects to receive some word from his oversea ABMC office when the removal actually has been called to their attention.
