Vol. 2—No. 51.

CAMP ROBERTS PARADE, CAMP ROBERTS, CALIFORNIA

Thursday, 2 October 1952

THE FIRST VEHICLE re-registration sticker is presented to M/Sgt. Tom Bohin by Major Jacques de Hart, Provost Marshal, at the Vehicle Registration Building, near the Main Gate. Sgt. Bohin had the number 1 metal tag which is being replaced. Registration of non-military vehicles started yesterday and continues to 28 October. (Shannon Photo).

RE-REGISTRATION

Metal Vehicle Tags Being Replaced By Window Stickers

Re-registration of all non-military vehicles started yesterday at the Vehicle Registration Building, near the Main Gate.

The currently-used metal tags attached to front and rear license plates are being replaced by colored and numbered stickers to be placed on windshields and rear windows. The only vehicles exempt from re-registration are those that arrived on the Post since 16 September. They already have the new stickers.

In order to receive the new stickers vehicles must meet the requirements concerning mechanical condition and insurance coverage.

Re-registration will be conducted Mondays through Fridays from 0800 to 1700 hours and on Saturdays from 0600 to 1200 hours.

The schedule for the week of 2 October is as follows:

First Letter Of Last Name	Date
A through M	Oct. 1-14
ENLISTED MEN
A through B	Oct. 1-2
C through E	Oct. 3-4
F through I	Oct. 6-7
J through L	Oct. 8-9

Officers whose last name begins with the letter M through Z will re-register from 15 October to 28 October. Enlisted men whose last name begins with the letters M through Z will re-register from 10 October to 18 October. Civilians will re-register their vehicles from 20 October through 28 October.

The exact dates will appear in next week's issue of Parade.

Warning Issued On Excessive Speed

Almond Acres residents and visitors are warned that the speed limit at the housing project is 12 MPH. Since there are a number of children on the site, it is important that the speed limit be followed.

It has been noted that some personnel are exceeding the speed limit, causing danger to the children there.

Sergeants Receive Three Promotions

Promotions have been announced for three sergeants as a result of the recent freeze-lifting on advancements.

The promotions, assigned on a monthly quota basis by Sixth Army, went to M/Sgt. Walter D. Sabey, Hq. Co., 7th Armored Division, and Frederick Montero, Hq. & Hq. Det., 7th QM Bn., both from SFC, and SFC Stanley Wojciechowski, Co. A, 31st MTB, from Sgt.

Army EM To Censor Mail In Next War

Washington (AFPS)—Army enlisted men will censor troops' mail in event of another war. The plan to use enlisted men, down through the rank of private first class, as censors was disclosed in a new Army special regulation. The regulation added the job of censorship examiner to the duties of enlisted "intelligence specialists."

General Speaks As King City Field Dedicated

Commending the citizens of King City for identifying "the accomplishments of their honored dead with a living and useful memorial," Major General Frank H. Partridge, Commanding General, delivered the principal address last Saturday night at the dedication of the community's new Wae Memorial Athletic Field.

General Partridge said, in part, that creation of the type of memorial King City had chosen pays tribute "not only to what these men were and their great contribution to American life, but, even more so, to their deep sense of personal service."

The general remarked that each of the city's war dead had had the hope that his sacrifice would make unnecessary the sacrifice of generations to come. Now, he said, recent events and the current world outlook incline "many of us to look with cynicism upon such optimistic hopes."

Yet, said General Partridge, we should consider that vision of the future—of hope, optimism, and peace—for which these men gave their lives. "That is why," he told his audience, "we should think of this fine civic and educational facility as a place from which the new generations will go forth to find fulfillment in a nation and a world of peace."

Present also at the ceremonies was an eight-man firing squad from the 87th Recon Battalion, Leaders' Course, under the command of Lt. Dennis Hill. Members of the squad were Cpl. Frank W. Levell, Jr., and PFCs Ronnie O. Hays, Ralph A. Aschenbaugh, Jesse Chico, Paul J. Nelson, Bernard Kelley, Carl J. Ryan, and Douglas E. Cowie.

CBR Team To Test Trainees, Reserves

Ten training companies and two general reserve units will be tested here on aspects of chemical, biological and radiological training next Thursday.

A CBR team from the Office of the Chief of Army Field Forces will conduct the tests.

47,000 Men To Face November Draft Call

Washington (AFPS)—The Department of Defense has asked the Selective Service System to deliver to Armed Forces Induction Stations 47,000 men in November.

Basic Trainees Learn About Basic Weapon

RESULTS of proper instruction are seen in the bulls-eyes scored by Pvt. Harrison and Pvt. Athey under the supervision of M/Sgt. Spradlin and Sgt. Williams. Rifle training at Camp Roberts is "most outstanding," according to General John R. Hodge, Chief of Army Field Forces, who observed the program during his recent visit. (Shannon Photo).

Rifle Instruction Given Added Emphasis

Rifle instruction at Camp Roberts—an essential and strongly emphasized part of the training program—has recently been given added impetus by the creation of the Rifle Instruction Committee.

The committee is headed by Major William C. Burns and includes M/Sgt. Eugene F. Spradlin, SFC Stanley Weiger, and Sgt. William O. Williams, all of Div Faculty.

SPC Weiger will be with the committee only a short time more as he is on orders for FECOM, but strength of the group will be built by addition of new personnel until it totals 21 officers and 153 enlisted men.

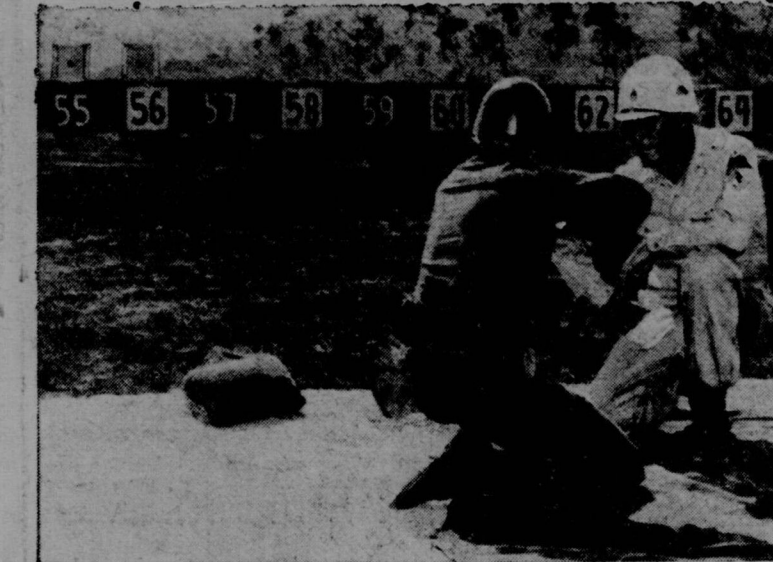

Function of the committee is to supervise and carry out instruction of all trainees in rifle marksmanship. It does this by sending teams of specially selected officers and enlisted men to coach trainee units in the use of the infantry's basic weapon, the M-1 rifle, as well as the carbine and the BAR.

The Rifle Instruction Committee, formerly a part of the Weapons Committee until it recently gained separate status, requires that all members complete a special course in rifle marksmanship before being assigned as instructors.

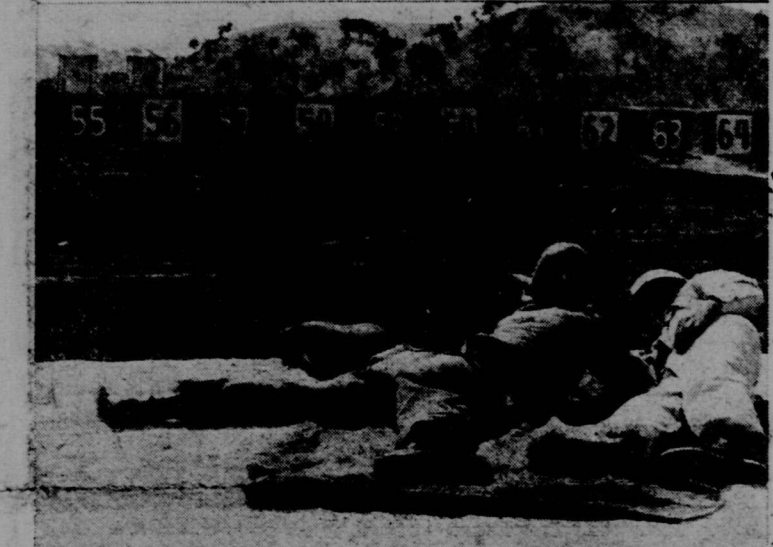

Work of the committee has the encouragement and backing of Major General Frank H. Partridge, Commanding General, and Brigadier General Arthur S. Champeny, Assistant Division Commander.

General Champeny, always keenly interested in rifle training, talks informally on marksmanship to each new group of trainees as they start their course of instruction. "And," says Major Burns, "the kids really eat it up."

Rifle marksmanship is taught by actual firing under the supervision of committee members and by the use of visual training aids which explain the correct trigger squeeze and tell how to sight for

RESULTS of proper instruction are seen in the bulls-eyes scored by Pvt. Harrison and Pvt. Athey under the supervision of M/Sgt. Spradlin and Sgt. Williams. varying elevations and wind velocities.

Each basic trainee spends 82 hours perfecting his knowledge of the M-1 rifle. During that period he covers the course three times, each time firing the following:

- (1) 8 rounds of slow fire at 100 yards;
- (2) 8 rounds, kneeling, slow fire, 200 yards;
- (3) 9 rounds, sustained fire, 200 yards;
- (4) 8 rounds, slow fire, prone, 300 yards;
- (5) 9 rounds, sustained, fire, prone, 300 yards;
- (6) 10 rounds, slow fire, prone, 500 yards.

When the trainee has completed this course he has covered every phase of marksmanship taught by the Army.

Furthermore, he has, in the opinion of General John R. Hodge, Chief of Army Field Forces, undergone the best possible training. General Hodge, who inspected D-16R during his recent visit to

Camp Roberts, said, "The rifle training received here is the most outstanding I have seen at any post in the United States."

Major Burns, the officer heading the committee, was a first sergeant at Camp Roberts from 1941 to 1943. He served for two years of the war in Europe with the 105th Division, came to the G-1 Section at the Presidio of San Francisco in 1945, and returned to Europe a year later.

Again called home in 1949, Major Burns was assigned to ORC duty in Tupelo, Mississippi. He went to FECOM the following year with the 35th Infantry Regiment, 25th Division, and came to Camp Roberts last March.

Major Burns and Sergeants Spradlin, Weiger and Williams have had the distinction of being selected to compete at Fort Benning, Georgia, for places on the U. S. Rifle Team. While at Fort Benning, Major Burns and Sergeant Williams were the only representatives of the Army to beat the Marines in rapid firing.

"VERY SATISFACTORY"

Units At East Garrison Rated By Testing Team

Engineer units at East Garrison received a "very satisfactory" rating Monday following a four-day inspection by a testing team from III Corps, Fort MacArthur.

The testing team, headed by Lt. Col. Gordon Scott, chief of the Engineering Section, III Corps, spent four days inspecting Headquarters, 34th Engineer Group; the 412th Engineer Construction Battalion; and the 95th Engineer Combat Battalion.

Commenting on the test, Colonel Scott noted that his team had found exceptional spirit and willingness to work long and hard among all personnel. The East Garrison units, said Colonel Scott, have "taken a long step in the march toward a superior rating."

In an address to Engineer officers following reports of the test, Major General Frank H. Partridge, Commanding General, said:

"I can't stress too much the value and importance of this test. I want you to accept this fine critique in the spirit of helpfulness."

"No matter how hard we work, we can always make our work better and more effective. We must never feel satisfied; we must always strive for something better."

Start Wearing OD's 3 November

Khaki uniforms will be worn by personnel until 3 November, when the uniform of the day will be OD.

During the period 12 October to 3 November, OD's may be worn between retreat and reveille. Uniforms to be worn for guard duty and by Military Police and personnel engaged in training will be prescribed by the commander concerned.

Types of uniforms to be worn are contained in Memo No. 25, Headquarters, 7th Armored Division, dated 5 March, 1952, and amended by Memo No. 72, Headquarters, 7th Armored Division, dated 14 July, 1952.

Present Award And Streamers At 464th Review

At a review and parade last Friday in East Garrison, the bronze star for heroic action in Korea was presented to PFC Elmer S. Howard, now with the 464th AAA (AW) Battalion at Camp Roberts.

PFC Howard inflicted heavy casualties on the enemy and disorganized the hostile force, according to the citation. His weapon failed but he repaired it, exposing himself to enemy fire and getting wounded in the attempt.

Col. Gerald Gibbs, commanding officer of the 47th AAA Brigade, Fort Baker, made the presentation. The battalion commander is Lt. Col. Ralph E. Glasgow.

In addition to the awarding of the bronze star, three campaign streamers were presented to the battalion for participation in activities during World War II in Central Burma, India-China and the China Defense.

The 464th AAA Battalion was constituted as an anti-aircraft artillery battalion in August, 1942. It was activated in October of that year at Camp Davis, North Carolina. The battalion was assigned to the CBI Theater in August, 1943, and disbanded at Kancharakara, India, in July, 1945. Reconstruction and Federal recognition came in 1946. At that time the unit was allotted to the Alabama National Guard. In January, 1951, it was ordered to military service and was assigned to Camp Roberts in December of 1951.

Has Anybody Seen Hambone?

CAMP ROBERTS PARADE

The Camp Roberts Parade is published weekly under the supervision of the Troop Information and Education Office, Camp Roberts, California. This news medium is an authorized publication published for the military and civilian personnel of Camp Roberts. ### 464th AAA (AW) BN.

Cpl. John Wellbaum, a field wireman in the communications section, Hq. Battery, was selected last week as Soldier of the Week. He will compete next week for the title of Battalion Soldier of the Month. He calls Talladega, Alabama, home.

Hq. Battery will represent the battalion in a state-wide 47th AAA Brigade best mess contest soon. This is a monthly activity. Last month, D Battery won the award. WO Harry Truax is mess officer and SFC William Hicks is mess sergeant of D Battery.

Second Lt. Otis H. Abrams was promoted recently to 1st Lt. He's a battery officer in B Battery. His home is in Sylacauga, Alabama.

—Cpl. Andy Lane.

DIVISION BAND

The band left the Post Tuesday to participate in a parade at Ventura. Band men spent the night at Camp Cooke and paraded yesterday. They recently played in King City at the dedication of an athletic field.

—Pvt. Richard Blessing.

CCB

Sgt. George Wyman was selected as Cadreman of the Week. He is with Company C, 48th AIB. Selection is based on military appearance and devotion to duty.

Two outstanding trainees were selected last week also — Pvt. Lawrence Minaird, Company A, 48th AIB, and Pvt. James Carter, Company C, 31st MTB.

"Sonnyboy" Vallie, an entertainer, appeared at an NCO Mess party last week. He has appeared in the movie "Sonnyboy" with Al Jolson, in addition to 14 other films. He also performed at the hospital. A western band "The Red Riders," provided music.

—Sgt. Alan Casty.

DIVISION FACULTY

Lt. Donald Paris and Lt. Harold Melnick are attending the Army Physical Training School at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. They are members of the General Subject Committee.

Two instructors, Lt. Peter Egocue and Lt. Alfred Ostroski, recently received superior ratings from the G3 inspection section.

M/Sgt. Jack Brown, PFC John Cleveland, and PFC Richard Rogers are newly assigned to the Rifle Committee.

Two former members of the Weapons Committee, SFC Wayne Scoonmaker and Sgt. Rossie L. Forman, are with the 25th Division. Scoonmaker is an operations sergeant, while Forman is instructing on the M-1 rifle.

A letter of commendation has been forwarded to Faculty concerning a recent outstanding performance by three General Subjects Committee instructors, Lt. James Thomas, SFC Ronald Theriault, and SFC William Skinner. They assisted in instructing the 362nd Infantry Regiment, ORC, Presidio of San Francisco.

34th EC GROUP

The entire Group conducted tests for the Army Field Forces, III Corps, at Hunter-Liggett last week. The acting CO is Lt. Col. Carl Elsen, in the temporary absence of Col. C. Van B. Sawin.

HOSPITAL

SFC Eldon Kring won $170 at the Hospital NCO Mess bingo game last week. Open bingo is held every Wednesday evening. Cards are $1 for the evening and a large jack-pot is always featured.

New arrivals at Detachment 2 include Lt. Emma Stafford, ANC, who spent 40 months in Japan and Okinawa, and Capt. Anne Bisignano, ANC, an anesthetist, who spent 30 months in Okinawa.

—PFC Don Pitman.

Band Will Play At San Miguel

Camp Roberts' division band will play Sunday at the historic San Miguel Mission to help celebrate the 155th anniversary of the mission's founding.

A California ranch-style barbecue and fiesta will begin at noon on the mission grounds, with the band playing concert music for the lunch hour.

Transportation will be provided for post personnel who wish to attend, according to Chaplain (Capt.) Anthony J. Sokol.

Before the celebration, solemn mass will begin at 1000 hours, sung by the Franciscan Novitiate choir of the mission. The sermon will be given by the Very Rev. David Temple of Oakland, provincial of the Franciscan Fathers on the West Coast.

The San Miguel Mission, founded in 1797, is one of the most historic and best-preserved in California.

Camp Roberts' band also played yesterday morning at Ventura in a parade for the Ventura County Fair, according to Sgt. Harold E. Shigham, first sergeant.

Announce Deadline For Christmas Mail

Washington (AFPS)—Christmas parcels for members of the Armed Forces overseas should be mailed between Oct. 15 and Nov. 15, the Department of Defense advises.

Matches and lighter fluid are banned from all parcels in addition to articles normally prohibited in the mails.

CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

"True Greatness"

No epithet is more misused and misapplied than that of "a great man." It is flung about so indiscriminately that it has lost most of its meaning. Every little man that makes a noise for a while gets it hung around his neck. There is the world's false estimate of greatness.

If we want to know what the elements of true greatness are, we may well use the measuring rod "great in the sight of the Lord." That is gold that will stand the test.

The first requisite either for power with others, or for greatness in a man's own development of character, is that there shall be unwavering firmness of grasp of clearly apprehended truths, and unflinching boldness of devotion to them. Moral characteristics do not reach the heights unless there has been much underground building to bear the lofty pinnacle; and no man, when great occasions come to him, develops a courage and an unwavering confidence which are strange to his habitual life.

No man has the right to be called "great" if his aims are small. If your aims are small, you will never be great; and if your highest aims are but to get a good slice of this world's pudding—no matter what power God may have given you to use—you are essentially a small man.

TI&E NOTES

The Troop Information and Education Section announces that the University of California Extension Service will offer two college level courses at Camp Roberts. These courses will be Psychology Ia and Speech. The classes will commence Tuesday, 14 October, 1952, and will run for 8 weeks.

Registration fee for either class will be $27.00. One-half of this amount will be assumed by the army for all enlisted personnel who register. Each course will carry 3 semester hours of credit and will be conducted in the same manner as any college level course offered on one of the University's Campuses.

Registration can be accomplished by coming to the Education Center, Bldg. 3044, and paying the necessary fees to the Regents of the University of California. Further information can be secured from any Unit TI&E Officer or by calling Ext. 132, the Education Center.

A recent educational interest survey completed by members of the command indicates there is sufficient interest in the following named subjects to start group study classes: Auto-Mechanics, Typing, English, Algebra, Review Arithmetic, and Bookkeeping.

As soon as qualified instructors can be secured, group study classes will be initiated. Watch company bulletin boards, the PARADE, and the Daily Bulletin for these announcements.

Assign Lt. Couch As Psychiatric Worker

1st Lt. Sidney A. Couch has been assigned as a psychiatric worker in the Mental Hygiene Clinic. Prior to being recalled to active duty, he was chief social worker at the Virginia Industrial School for Boys.

He entered the Army in 1941 and took training at Sheppard Field, Texas and Santa Ana, California, Army Air Base. A veteran of 62 bombing missions during World War II, he was recalled from duty in 1945 and recalled last year.

M/Sgt. Malecha Designs Status Control Boards

M/Sgt. Walter C. Malecha, maintenance sergeant at the Post Motor Pool, recently received a letter of appreciation from Major General Frank H. Partridge, Commanding General, for designing and constructing status control boards now in use at the Motor Pool.

The General wrote, "I want you to know that the contribution of your suggestion is appreciated, and I consider your originality and ingenuity an excellent example of your sincere interest toward improving operations in this command."

The device enables rapid dispatch of administrative vehicles from the Motor Pool and a visual check of the status of each vehicle, whether it be "ready," "on dispatch," "due for weekly check" or "Ordnance deadlined."

The vehicle registration and bumper number is painted on a wooden insert which is slid over the board to rest under the proper heading. It is a colorful addition to an office as a visit to the dispatcher's booth at the Motor Pool will reveal.

This status board, according to M/Sgt. Malecha, can be adapted to personnel control by substituting names for numbers and appropriate headings such as "present for duty," "hospital," "guard," "TDY," and "DS."

The invention will be entered in the current contest for military suggestions. The first, second, and third place winners will receive $15, $10, and $5 respectively.

M/Sgt. Malecha is presently on temporary duty for several weeks at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Off-Post Parking Lot On East Side

A new off-Post parking lot has been established on the east side of Highway 101 near the main gate. Vehicles will be parked to the right of the entrance.

Military Police guard will not be provided for the new parking lot. The lot went into operation 29 September.

Defense Output Up, Secretary Reports

Washington (AFPS)—Secretary of Defense Robert A. Lovett has reported a "significant and gratifying" acceleration in defense production during the fiscal year ending June 30.

Since the beginning of Korean hostilities, the production of planes, ships, tanks, and other weapons has increased 6.6 times, Mr. Lovett told a press conference here recently. He added that the rate of acceleration has surpassed the highest such rate achieved during WWII.

Don't Submit Claims For Combat Pay Yet

Military personnel at Camp Roberts are not authorized to submit a claim for combat pay until General Orders are received from the Department of the Army listing the combat units and the dates each unit qualified as a combat unit for the period 31 May 1950 through 30 June 1952.

Upon receipt of these orders, all eligible personnel will be notified of the procedure for submission of their claim.

Trainees Defeat Cadre Riflemen

In a rifle match last Saturday morning trainees of Reserve Command beat the cadre 1162 points to 1137.

Firing was conducted from the 100, 200, 300 and 500 yard mark. Major William C. Burns, chief of the Div Fac rifle committee, conducted the firing. Col. Weston L. Blanchard is the regimental commander.

The six man trainee team was composed of Privates Adams, B of the 95th, Capps, D of the 77th, Selden, D of the 77th, Hillhouse, D of the 77th, Peoples, B of the 95th, and Bennett, A of the 87th.

The cadre team members were M/Sgt. Skinner, Hq. Company, 95th SFC Hummel, A of the 95th, Sgt. Wegren, C of the 87th, Cpl. Howe, D of the 77th, Cpl. Plaugher, A of the 77th, and Cpl. Miller, A of the 77th.

Strange Food Eaten

Civilized man, who relishes crabs, oysters, snails and frog's legs, scorns insects as food. Yet Hottentots consider a locust plague as manna from heaven. Australian bushmen eat various types of raw insect larvae. American Indians enjoyed roasted crickets, as well as the queens of leaf-cutting ants.

Post To Furnish Army-USC Game Half-Time Color

Camp Roberts will furnish a good share of the colorful half-time ceremonies planned for the Army-University of Southern California football game in the Los Angeles Coliseum this Saturday afternoon.

The post will supply 50 men from cadre and the first and second phase of Leaders' Course and 10 WACS from WAC Detachment No. 1, 6100 ASU. The latter group will be joined by a like number of WACS from the Presidio of San Francisco.

During half-time, the local contingent will form a giant "A" for Army on the floor of the Coliseum. It will also furnish a color guard and will take part in ceremonies preceding the game.

The Leaders' Course unit is under the command of 2nd Lt. George Robles, and the WAC group is headed by Sgt. Sally O'Quinn. Both groups left Camp Roberts yesterday morning and will return Sunday, being quartered during the interval at Fort MacArthur.

Idea Pays Off For Mr. Robert Oeck

Robert Oeck, Paso Robles, received $10 recently for devising a soldering method to repair direction signal light arms on Ford trucks. The idea not only permitted broken switch shafts to be used again but actually strengthened composition of the original part.

He has submitted ten suggestions to the Efficiency Awards Program. The program gives cash awards and certificates to civilian and military personnel working on Post who submit time, labor or money saving ideas. An estimated $10,000 was saved in the last year's campaign.

USO-Pal Dinner Ticket Sales Campaign Starts

Tickets for the USO-Pal Dinner, to be held simultaneously at the San Miguel and Paso Robles USO Clubs on 12 November, have been placed on sale at both clubs and at leading retail stores in the San Miguel and Paso Robles area.

Start of the ticket sales campaign was prefaced by mailing of a letter to organizations and social clubs urging their support of the affair.

Purpose of the dinner is to strengthen friendly relationships between local residents and enlisted men and women at Camp Roberts. Tickets, which are sold to civilian hosts for $3.75, admit both the host and a soldier guest to dinner.

The dinner, which will feature turkey in both Paso Robles and San Miguel, is expected to draw an attendance of 300—half civilians and half military personnel—in each community. Military guests will be selected on the basis of achievement in their units during the current month.

The San Miguel USO-Pal Dinner will be prepared and served by community committees. In Paso Robles, the dinner will be put on by the Dorcas Society of the Lutheran Church.

L'il Abner Enlists In Safety Campaign

L'il Abner is now at Camp Roberts, working for the post's safety drive.

With the help of Daisy Mae and her cousin, "Lucky" Scragg, Al Capp's cartoon characters are demonstrating furlough hazards in a comic book being distributed to all enlisted personnel by their unit safety officers.

Enough copies of the booklet were received from Sixth Army to assure one to each enlisted man at the camp.

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization reports that 11 billion movie tickets are sold annually throughout the world.

7th QM, CCA, ResCommand Receive Post Championship Trophies

Operating on a well-planned itinerary, Major General Frank H. Partridge, commanding general 7th Armored Division, Camp Roberts, presented the various units with trophies for their outstanding performance in Army sports.

Recipients of team and individual awards were, Reserve Command, Combat Command A, and the Seventh Quartermasters. These units nosed out highly competitive opposition for the top honors of Post Champs.

Reserve Command's softball team outscored the 7th Quartermasters, in a tightly fought contest, with a final tally of 3-2, thereby earning the right to represent the Camp in the Sixth Army tournament at Fort Ord. However, they lost to the Camp Cooke Medics in the home stretch after twelve innings of play, by a score of 1-0.

Combat Command A's swim champs surged from behind to overtake Reserve Command's early lead in the playoffs for the Post Swimming title, and although the water was cool, the competition was hot, with the final team score reading, CCA 32 points to ResCommand's 30.

Now, swinging over to the golfing side of the ledger, the 7th QM team led off on the Morro Bay course for a low five man total 739, and the Post championship. Also these men formed the nucleus of the swing artists who travelled to Fort Lewis, Washington for the Sixth Army championships. They were strongly reinforced by Sgt. Chuck Malchaski, ResCom, and Pvt. Charley Hunt, DivArty. The entire team skimmed the cream off the top of the award list, and came home with another Sixth Army championship.

Proudly presenting the trophies to the Post Champions, Major General Frank H. Partridge expressed the feelings of the entire Camp with these words.

"Congratulations to all of you. We are proud of you for the awards you have earned. Athletics is an attribute not to be overlooked, as a good athlete makes a good soldier. In addition, it is a pleasant way to get physical fitness, which in turn helps to accomplish the mission of the Army."

Slow Fire Medalist M/Sgt. Huelet (Joe) Benner gave the U.S.S. its only gold medal win in Olympic shooting by scoring 553 points of a possible 600 in the slow fire pistol match. Benner, the first U.S. Olympic slow fire winner since 1920, is also a three-time national individual pistol champion.

Roberts All Stars Take Second In Sixth Army Tilt

Fort Ord's Warriors went on the warpath for the fourth time this season, and scalped the Combat Command A All Stars, 5-2, in a rapid fire game played on the Bernet diamond at Camp Stone-man for the Sixth Army championship.

The All Stars finished a strong second in the Sixth Army Tournament, blasting the northern division winners from Fort Worden, Washington, by a runaway score of 19-5.

Backed by the heavy artillery of Jack Holmquist, who pounded out four hits, Billy Bullock with three, and Bob Harrison and Bob Winkles each with two, the All Stars clinched the Worden game in the eighth inning, with a seventeen hit attack.

Bob Harrison went the distance allowing but three hits and striking out twelve, while Gil Dickens poled a four-bagger for the hard-fighting team.

Coming into the final game with the soon-to-be Sixth Army title holders, the All Stars went ahead 1-0 in the second inning on a single by Gene Grigiski, bringing home Dick Neal. The Ord Warriors countered with single tallies in the third, fourth and fifth with Dick Wilson banging out a two-run homer in the eighth to take a 5-1 lead.

Hits by Al Mouton and Ray Burner accounted for the last All Star run in the eighth, making a total of eleven hits, two runs and no errors, against Ord's twelve hits, five runs and two errors.

First Blood!

The crystal gazers from PIO picked ten winners out of ten (Penn-Notre Dame tie game counts as win) for the only perfect record in the first week of the Pigskin Parade Predictions.

Closely behind the winners came The Hill, Special Services, CCB and Parade with nine wins and one loss. Picking eight out of ten were CCA, 7th QM, and Leaders' Course.

DivTrains, DivArty and Reserve Command picked seven games correctly while 6100 ASU, East Garrison and Div Faculty could only forecast six out of the ten possible.

Low unit on the totem pole were the WACS with a five and five record.

The first sports event held in the original Madison Square Garden was a six-day bicycle race in 1891.

DivArty Wins Shoe Tournney, ResCom Second

DivArty's four galloping horse-men came through without their shoes in the highly spirited post competition last week, mainly because they had left them circling the stake in the horseshoe pit.

In other words, DivArty is now the Horseshoe Champs of the Post, having logged five wins with nary a loss.

Team members, PFC Frankie Kuzara, PFC Bob Arthur, Pvt. Dave Caldwell, and PFC Charley Robinson really pitched the shoes, outpointing Reserve Command, 3-2, Combat Command A, 3-1, and 7th QM and DivFac, 3-0.

Reserve Command holds the number two spot with four wins and one loss, while CCA is in third with three and two.

In case you're in the dark about the scoring of horseshoe matches, the winning tally counts 50 points. From the stake to the shoe pitcher, the distance is exactly 40 feet. If you're aiming right, and score a ringer, you receive three points, but when both contestants hit the target, there's no tally.

Actually you score only when you connect and your rival misses, or when both of you miss the stake, the one whose toss is within a shoe's width of the stake gets the point. Consequently, both players could throw 15 consecutive ringers and there still would be no score.

DivArty had the system down to a science and managed to keep their shoe throwin' arms limber and aimed for the bulls-eye.

Here's the roundup of the results:

Table with 4 columns: Team, Wins, Losses, Ties. Div ARTY: 5, 0, 1. RESCOM: 4, 1, 1. CCA: 3, 2, 2. 7th QM: 2, 3, 3. 6100: 1, 4, 4.

7th QM Classes Start Sports Race

Class 36 leads the field in the inter-class competition at Radio school. Several tournaments in various sports already have been completed with one left to finish out during September.

The leading class, 36 took full honors by winning both the softball and the singles horseshoe match. Class 37 came through in the table tennis, winning both sections of the tournament, singles and doubles.

Splitting the horseshoe events with the leaders, class 35 won the doubles events and pummeled their way through to the top in the volleyball race. It was the same story of a duel win with class 39. They cued into third place by winning two tourneys via the billiards route.

A football tournament is now in progress and points collected in the matches will determine the outcome of the interclass competition.

Trophy Standings

September has gone the way of all months, but it has left a lasting impression as far as the Camp Commander's Trophy standings are concerned.

Reserve Command still holds a strong lead on the first place, with 1275 points, but they are now being threatened by a new unit in second place, namely, Combat Command A with 1025 points.

6100 ASU has slipped down to third with 983 1-3 and is being closely followed by the 7th Quartermasters, who have 958 1-3 points.

Table with 2 columns: Team, Points. Res Com: 1275. CCA: 1025. 6100: 983 1/3. 7th QM: 958 1/3. DivArty: 821. CCB: 837 1/2. DivTrains: 650. East Garrison: 175. DivFac: 100.

Reserve Command Battles Feature Hot, Heavy Action

Series Of Events Starts Chain Reaction, Providing Plenty Of Fast Moving Contests Between Eager Scrappers

By JIM SEAY

Thursday was a whirlwind type of day, with the dust blowing thick and fast, and the sky threatening to bust open and pour out a deluge, but this was nothing compared to the series of events which featured the evening's smoker.

The Arena began filling up early with Company D of the 77th, Reserve Command, arriving first and occupying the East side bleachers. With the card scheduled to start at 2015 hours, there were a few anxious faces floating around when Baker Battery of the 87th, failed to file in and take up the rooting stands on the West side. However, the word soon came in, the entire Battery had been placed on fire alert.

The spirit of good sportsmanship came to the top of the ladder, though, and Lt. Rex Endsley, of D Company split his outfit in half and sent them over to root for Baker of the 87th.

And cheer they did, along with a couple of hundred other fight fans who saw a more active and scrappier ten bout card than previously.

Eight battles went off without a hitch, then in the ninth with Irishman "Red" O'Leary, C of the 440th, and Johnny Fisher, from Food Service school standing toe to toe and swapping punches for two rounds, and just getting set to answer the gong for the third, the lights went out.

That settled the fight card for the evening, serving as an anticlimax to a rough and ready ring-fest which makes a guy wonder how so much leather can be thrown in such a short space of time.

Particularly this is true of the bout between Ray Molina, and Will Jones, both from Company B of the 33rd, DivTrains. First, Molina would cut loose with a haymaker that had enough juice behind it to light up New York's whiteway, then Jones would come down from the clouds and push the ring mat up to Molina's chin for a second round nine count.

Back and forth at a pace which Referee Gene Fullmer "had never seen in the history of the Sports Arena bouts," these boys mixed it up until the final bell. The crowd went crazy, yelling and shouting and cheering wildly as the match was called a draw.

This was the star bout of the evening, but there were plenty more loaded with action. Starting with a draw between John Miller, B of the 87th, and Win Forman, D of the 77th, five contests with the battling Reserve Command companies ended with

New Officers At Special Services

Two officers were added to the staff of Special Services recently. They are 1st Lt. George E. Doran and 2nd Lt. Robert E. Pickering. Lt. Doran is the new Athletics Officer, and Lt. Pickering is the assistant Athletics Officer.

Both men are highly qualified for their positions as their backgrounds testify. Lt. Doran is a former Michigan State track star. In high school he was all-city basketball and was elected to the all-state track and football teams. In the Air Force for three years, Lt. Doran served in the capacity of athletic officer. Later he was connected with sports at the Riverside, California YMCA.

Lt. Pickering also has a wealth of athletics in his experience. Pickering started his climb at South Kitsap high school in Washington. He was a member of the baseball, basketball and football teams. After graduation, he went to Washington State where he played frosh football and later was an end for the varsity. In '49 the Lieutenant became a member of the varsity basketball club. He returned to South Kitsap again, this time as athletic director for the district until he entered the service.

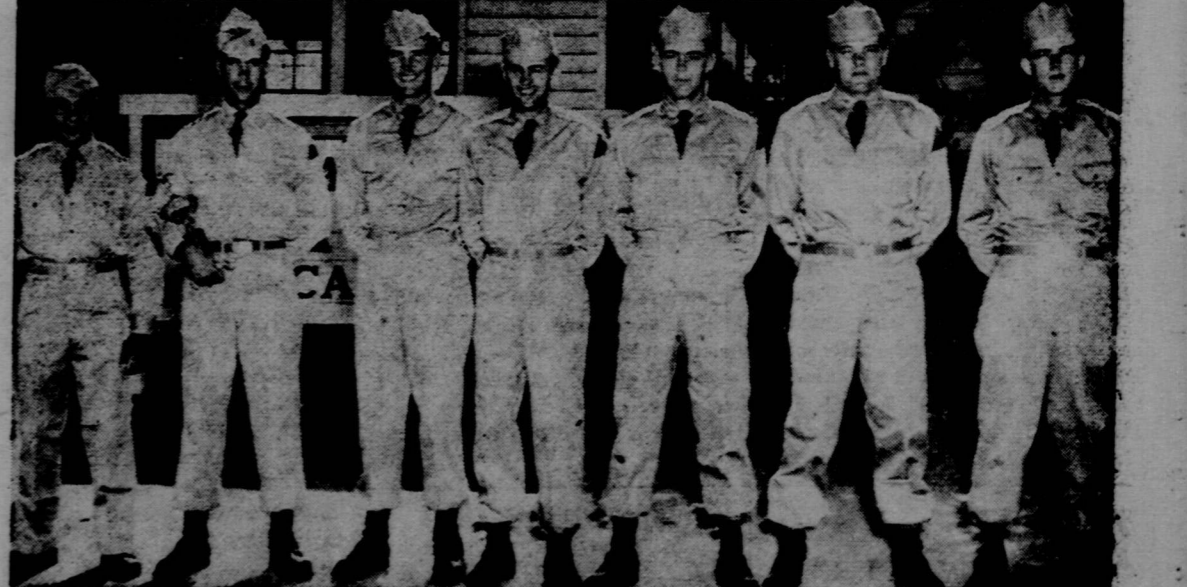

Hold On A Minute!

If you were planning on coming out to the Smoker tonight, don't do it. Why? The reason is simple, there isn't going to be one. Why? Practically everyone scheduled to fight is on overseas orders, both here and at Camp Stone-man whence the competition was to be forthcoming.

ing gloves of Hosa Oliver, D of the 77th, until too late. He left himself wide open once too often, and caught a roundhouse right and left to the face which made the blood flow, and gave Oliver a unanimous decision.

The tall lanky frame of Don Pugh, B of the 87th, gave him an advantage over short and stocky Ron Nutting, B of the 95th, ResCom, but the latter was by far the most ring-wise and outclassed the plucky scrapper for the decision.

These bouts by far outshone the earlier smoker, and a sports basket full of well done praise to WOJG Lyle Allen, A and R officer, Reserve Command, Sgt. Pat Nappi, PFC Gene Fullmer, Sgt. Gil Brisendine, and the commanding officers of the units concerned, Lt. Rex Endsley, D of the 77th, and Capt. Jimmy Parker, Battery B of the 87th.

Work Progresses On NCO Mess

CONSTRUCTION of the interior of the new NCO Mess is rapidly reaching completion. The new club, located in Bldg. 3064 on the southeast corner of the parade ground between the Fire Station and DivArty, will have all the modern conveniences for recreation and entertainment. While the new club is in the construction stage, three branches are in operation on-post. (Signal Photo).

Drive For New Members Opened By NCO Clubs

"The NCO Clubs of Camp Roberts need support." According to a member of the Board of Governors, there has been a 739 drop in paid membership in the last six months. This caused the clubs to operate in the red last month.

If this lack of interest continues on the part of NCO's, it may cause the closing of the clubs.

Following is the number of paid members for the last half-year:

Table with 2 columns: Month (APRIL to SEPTEMBER) and Member Count (1051 to 312).

Opening a drive for members, the clubs will hold a "get acquainted night" in the near future. This night all the clubs will be open and every NCO is welcome to enjoy the clubs' facilities.

At the present time three clubs are in operation with a new main club under construction. The main mess is now located in Bldg. 879, near the WAC quarters. The North Post club is in Bldg. 7023, near Division Faculty. The East Garrison Club is located in Bldg. 27017. The new club will be located in Bldg. 8034, between the Fire Station and Division Artillery, at the southwest corner of the Parade Ground.

Membership in the Post NCO Mess is open to NCO's from Corporal to Master Sergeant. The initiation fee has been abolished, and the monthly dues of $1 entitle members to full privileges in any of the clubs branches.

Facilities at all three clubs include a snack bar for short orders and sandwiches, pin-ball machines, and a completely stocked bar with all popular brands of beer and class six supplies.

Plans are being made, if demand warrants, for complete medical service for families in the evenings, and a day and evening nursery for care of children with a full time registered nurse in attendance.

The new club, now under construction, will have all modern conveniences for entertainment and comfort. Included in its facilities will be a 38 foot bar, large reading room, and lounge.

Western Band Plays At Service Club 1

A western band under the direction of a Camp Roberts civilian employee and composed of local military personnel will perform this Sunday at 2000 hours in Service Club No. 1.

The band will form the bulk of the evening's entertainment.

Disabled Vets' Song Writing Contest Starts

Disabled veterans with a flair for song writing will get a chance to publish their songs in a song-writing contest to be conducted in all Veterans Administration hospitals by a group of publishers affiliated with Broadcast Music, Inc., the Veterans Administration in San Francisco announced recently.

The three top winners in the hospital contest will have their songs published by publishers, members of the BMI group.

In addition, the first 25 prize-winners will share a total of $1,325 in U. S. Savings Bonds.

Copies of the published songs will be sent to all VA hospitals, for use in connection with Special Services music programs for patients. The songs, however, won't be plugged commercially.

First prize winner will get $250 in bonds. There will be the following additional awards: second prize, $150, third prize $100., eleven awards of $50 bonds, and eleven prizes of $25 bonds.

Volunteer workers in hospitals will be permitted to help only to the extent of writing down words and music for patients so severely handicapped that they can't do it themselves.

The BMI-VA contest got under way September 15 and will run until November 15. Contest winners will be announced some time after the contest has ended.

Familiar Phrase "Want To Bet?" Traced To Romans

The familiar challenge "want to bet?" goes back to at least to the days of the Roman gladiators when "Julius the Lion" was running the third at the Colosseum with support of much Roman currency.

Pancho Villa, the Mexican revolutionist, once wagered war correspondent Floyd Gibson that he could make the front pages of every New York newspaper. Pancho then staged a battle. But he lost his bet. He had overlooked the World Series, which committed his war to the inside pages.

A Harvard chemistry professor bet a friend during a presidential campaign that he would eat his shirt if his candidate didn't win. The professor lost, and paid his debt by dissolving his shirt in acid, neutralizing the acid and them spreading the solution on bread.

Not quite as scientific was the challenge made by "Titanic" Thompson, who bet a companion that he could throw a peanut over a high building. By pouring lead over the shell and letting it harden, he accomplished his boast.

A Frenchman named Jean de Gunther was once involved in a pistol duel with a German. After coolly surviving his opponent's first shot, de Gunther said to his foe: "I'll bet 10,000 francs I hit you between the eyes." His rival's second paid off the victorious Frenchman.

Large Crowd Attends Circus Room Party

The old school bell rang as the pupils filled the Circus Room in East Garrison for a "back to school party," last Tuesday evening.

The club was decorated like the little red school house with lollypops and noise makers thrown in for familiar atmosphere.

Miss Katie McDonald acted as the head school teacher with Miss Betty Blaine acting as the "dunce" pupil of the day.

Included in the evening's activities was a yo-yo contest, a quiz show, a spelling bee, a bubble blowing contest, and a very funny game of musical chairs.

Entertainers for the evening were Walter Russell, Ernest Jones, and Ken Miller. The entire crowd joined in for some good community singing to end this fine program.

Treasure Hunt This Saturday

A treasure hunt will be conducted this Saturday in and around Service Club No. 1. Personnel are invited to participate. The starting time is 2000 hours in the service club.

Clues written on paper will be scattered in and near the club. Prizes will be awarded.

Travelers Aid Renders Fine Service To Soldiers

Quietly and efficiently the Travelers Aid office at Paso Robles has been providing assistance to military personnel and their families here for nearly two years.

Under the direction of Mrs. Louise Frisbie, the office has extended aid to approximately 1,000 persons during the first one and one-half years of its existence. It has provided case work service and counseling guidance to soldiers and their families in countless instances.

In addition, other services have been rendered. "Persons who are on the move run into all kinds of situations," Mrs. Frisbie observed.

"They have financial troubles, difficulty in locating suitable housing, and we have helped many with problems resulting from marital discord or emotional situations," she added.

The Travelers Aid also serves as a focal point for rentals. Both renters and landlords call the agency for assistance in renting rooms, apartments, or houses. Separate registration lists are maintained, so that either group can be accommodated.

"Our rental service is very selective," Mrs. Frisbie said. "If the landlord specifies a non-smoker or no children, then we do the best we can to secure the right kind of tenant for him."

The local agency is operating as a unit of the USO in Paso Robles. As a national organization with experience in helping others, the Travelers Aid was selected for this special service in Paso Robles.

The main office is maintained on the second floor at 731-12th Street. On Thursday evenings and on Saturday and Sunday, a Travelers Aid desk is placed at the USO building to aid servicemen.

Looks At Books

Looking for some books dealing with the unusual? Here are two new stories which will hold your interest.

"THE JUNGLE AND THE DAMNED" by Hassoldt Davis is the true story of the author's exploration of French Guiana. The first stop on the journey was Devil's Island and the other penal islands off Cayenne and the Penal Settlement near St. Laurent. The major portion of the book deals with the exploration of the Maroni River and describes Guiana Indian life. If the little known parts of the world interest you, don't miss this book.

Enjoy a good crime story? Then read Edgar Lustgarten's new novel "GAMES FOR THREE LOSERS." A married man much in the public eye, a very attractive secretary, and a black-mailer are the chief characters. The action which develops between these people makes an exciting story.

If you enjoy pocket books, you'll find a wide variety at your libraries as well as your favorite magazine. There's something for everyone at your libraries.

Something different in the line of stage shows will be presented at Theater One this Saturday night at 1930 hours. An Olympic gym and archery team will present a unique and highly entertaining show.

Included in the show will be acrobats, gymnasts and some of the nation's finest archers. This is the first time an event of this type will appear at Camp Roberts.

Free Coffee And Doughnuts Offered

Do you ever get up too late on Sunday for breakfast?

Record Review

by Pvt. Jerry Litman

Count Basie is once again making an appearance with a new band. He recently played a concert with Billy Eckstine and the George Shearing quintet in San Francisco.

Last year the Count predicted that bands will come back. And it now looks as if he was right.

His band played in New York and jazz critics wrote he had a "real George" outfit. Basie records for Mercury for whom he re-cut some of his old hits like "Basie's Blues," and "Jumpin' at the Woodside."

NEW RECORDS — "Blame It On My Youth" and "There's A Lull In My Life," Gordon MacRae (Capitol). A vocal group assists MacRae to make two excellent sides.

"Moonlight In Vermont" and "Tabu," Johnny Smith Quintet (Roost). This features a group of men from New York NBC orchestra, tenor Stan Getz, bassist Eddie Safrancki, pianist Sanford Gold, drummer Don Lammond, and guitarist Johnny Smith. It's a hit.

"One Mint Julip" and "Chili Sauce," Louis Prima (Columbia). If you like Prima, and most people do, then you'll go for both these tunes.

"Auf Wiederseh'n Sweetheart" and "Half As Much," Guy Lombardo (Decca). Lombardo always plays easy-to-dance music and these are in that vein. Kenny Martin handles the singing chores very nicely.

"Stardust" and "Beehive," Stan Kenton (Capitol). The first is a kind of unusual tune for Kenton because it isn't so noisy. The other side is in the manner of the old Kenton band.

Les Brown Band In Paso Tonight

Les Brown and his "Band of Renown," playing at the Paso Robles Fairgrounds Ballroom tonight, is by far the most traveled orchestra in America.

When Les wrote and chose as his theme song the tune, "Sentimental Journey," he had no idea he would in the years to come cover over 500,000 miles playing the same song to millions of servicemen and women all over globe.

Places with far-away sounding names are now commonplace to Les and his boys. Guam, Saipan, Seoul, Pyongyang, Tokyo, Paris, Berlin, Wiesbaden, and Frankfurt all became as well known as Hollywood is to Los Angeles residents.

A special rate for servicemen has been arranged for tonight through Post Special Services. Admission price for the night for military personnel will be $1.25 per person.

Briefest picture role of the year goes to Edward MacNally. At nine a. m. he reported to the set of "The Lusty Men." An hour later, Robert Mitchum tapped him with a left hook while the camera rolled. At 10:30 he went home, paycheck in his pocket.
