

Buddies' Names on Box Score Map of Ed Marks Company D, 31st Tank Battalion, 7th Armored Division

www.7tharmdiv.org/docrep/X-31D-Marks-Box-Score-Names.pdf

As did everyone in 7th Armored Division after VE-Day, while they were still in Germany, Ed Marks received his copy of the "Box Score" map showing the route of 7th Armored Division in Europe. The right side of the map left room for guys to write down their names and addresses on their buddies' maps. And some even wrote their names on the map.

Ed's son John Marks' nephew Todd Sams scanned the signatures on Ed's map into 8 images. This document includes the images and transcription of the names by Wesley Johnston, 7th Armored Division Association Historian and son of Walter Johnston of Company B, 38th Armored Infantry Battalion. Uncertain readings are followed by a question mark (?).
