Dear Mr. Brodman:

This is to inform you that the remains of your loved one have been permanently interred, as recorded above, side by side with comrades who also gave their lives for their country. Customary military funeral services were conducted over the grave at the time of burial.

After the Department of the Army has completed all final interments, the cemetery will be transferred, as authorized by the Congress, to the care and supervision of the American Battle Monuments Commission. The Commission also will have the responsibility for permanent construction and beautification of the cemetery, including erection of the permanent headstones. The headstone will be inscribed with the name exactly as recorded above, the rank or rating where appropriate, organization, State, and date of death. Any inquiries relative to the type of headstone or the spelling of the name to be inscribed thereon, should be addressed to the American Battle Monuments Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Your letter should include the full name, rank, serial number, grave location, and name of the cemetery.

While interments are in progress, the cemetery will not be open to visitors. You may rest assured that this final interment was conducted with fitting dignity and solemnity and that the grave-site will be carefully and conscientiously maintained in perpetuity by the United States Government.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS B. LARKIN

Dear Mr. Brodman:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disinterment and final burial of the heroic dead of World War II. The Quartermaster General of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the honored dead. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlets, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Cemeteries," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship as set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to relinquish your rights to the next in line of kinship, please complete Part II of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please complete Part III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option 2, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Dear Mr. Brodman:

The War Department is most desirous that you be furnished the latest information regarding the burial location of your son, the late Corporal Louis H. Brodman, A.S.N. 35 274 235.

The records of this office disclose that his remains were originally interred in a temporary cemetery established near the place where he met his death, but were later moved to a more suitable site where constant care of the grave can be assured by our Forces in the field.

The records further disclose that his remains are now interred in the U. S. Military Cemetery Margraten, Holland, plot PPP, row 4, grave 81, located ten miles west of Aachen, Germany.

The War Department has now been authorized to comply, at Government expense, with the feasible wishes of the next of kin regarding final interment, here or abroad, of the remains of your loved one. At a later date, this office will, without any action on your part, provide the next of kin with full information and solicit his detailed desires.

Please accept my sincere sympathy in your great loss.

Dear Miss Schira:

Your letter to The Adjutant General concerning your fiancée, the late Corporal Louis H. Brodman, has been referred to this office.

The official report of burial shows that the remains of Corporal Brodman were originally interred in Ittenbach, Germany, but were later disinterred and moved to a more suitable site where constant care of the grave can be assured by our Forces in the field.

The report of burial further discloses that the remains of Corporal Brodman are now interred in Plot PPP, Row 4, Grave 81, in the United States Military Cemetery Margraten, Holland, located ten miles west of Aachen, Germany.

There are no provisions at the present time whereby the War Department may furnish photographs of military cemeteries or of the individual graves overseas. However, it is anticipated that, within the current calendar year, the War Department, through the Headquarters, Army Air Forces, will be able to provide, upon request of the next of kin, air photographs of most of the principal established military cemeteries overseas.

Please accept my sincere sympathy in your loss.

Dear Adjutant General:

I have a very im-

you. To me it means so terribly much and I will be very grateful to you if you can help me in any way.

My fiance was killed in action in Assinghausen to bother you, but I've tried so hard to get a picture of his grave and have been unable to so far. Please don't think I'm just doing this for fun or for curiosity. He meant and still means everything in the world to me. We were engaged and planning on getting married when he was drafted into the army.

He was inducted on February 4 - 1942

I have a very important question and I would be very grateful to you if you can help me in any way.

My father was killed in action in the Philippines during our April 2-1945.

A letter was sent to me but the address was wrong.

The first thing I did was to write to the War Relocation Authority.

It was indicated on February 4, 1945 that my father was in the Philippines.

he was killed. I've been broken hearted ever since. So please, if you can in any way get me a picture of his grave - or if not - Can you please tell me how I might get a picture? Please help me if you possibly can. If there is any expense in getting the picture let me know.

His name is - Cpl. Louis H. Brodman, A. S. N. 35274235 - He was in Co. A, 17th Tank Bn, in the 7th Armored Division. He was killed in Assinghausen, Germany and was buried in an American Cemetery in Ittenbach, Germany.

Has his body been moved out of Germany and interned in a cemetery in an Allied Country as yet? If so - will you please give me the name of the cemetery, town, country, grave number, plot and row of his grave? I understand all American boys' bodies will be moved out of Germany.

Please help me get a picture of his grave if you possibly can. I will be forever grateful to you. And if his body has been moved out of Germany into an Allied country, can you please give me the exact location of his grave?

Mr. Leo C. Brodman
Route #1
Carey, Ohio

Dear Mr. Brodman:

The Army Effects Bureau has received from overseas some personal effects of your son, Corporal Louis H. Brodman.

These effects are being forwarded to you in one package. Regrettably, some of the items were damaged prior to receipt at this Bureau.

If, by any chance, the property has not reached you at the expiration of thirty days from this date, please notify me and tracer will be instituted.

The action of this Bureau in transmitting personal effects does not, of itself, vest title in the recipient. Such property is forwarded for distribution according to the laws of the state of the soldier's legal residence.

I regret the circumstances prompting this letter, and wish to express my sympathy in the loss of your son.

Yours very truly,

P. L. KOOB
