Dear Mrs. Smith:

This is to inform you that the remains of your loved one have been permanently interred, as recorded above, side by side with comrades who also gave their lives for their country.

Customary military funeral services were conducted over the grave at the time of burial.

After the Department of the Army has completed all final interments, the cemetery will be transferred, as authorized by the Congress, to the care and supervision of the American Battle Monuments Commission. The Commission also will have the responsibility for permanent construction and beautification of the cemetery, including erection of the permanent headstone. The headstone will be inscribed with the name exactly as recorded above, the rank or rating where appropriate, organization, State, and date of death. Any inquiries relative to the type of headstone or the spelling of the name to be inscribed thereon, should be addressed to the American Battle Monuments Commission, the central address of which is Room 713, 1712 "G" Street, N. W., Washington 25, D. C.

While interment and beautification activities are in progress, the cemetery will not be open to visitors. However, upon completion thereof, due notice will be carried by the press.

You may rest assured that this final interment was conducted with fitting dignity and solemnity and that the grave-site will be carefully and conscientiously maintained in perpetuity by the United States Government.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Smith:

Recently, the Army Effects Bureau received from overseas some personal property which was not completely identified as to the owner. It was received here in a package marked with the name "Sgt. William E. Smith, 16053042". The Adjutant General has furnished your name as being the mother of Sergeant William E. Smith, 16061737, deceased.

The information on file at this Bureau is not sufficient to identify the property as belonging to your son. I am writing with the thought, however, that you may have some knowledge of personal belongings possessed by Sergeant Smith. For your information, I am inclosing a list of the property received.

If it is your belief that you can identify the property as belonging to your son, I shall appreciate your authorizing us to mail it to you at Government expense, for examination.

For your convenience, there is inclosed an addressed envelope which requires no postage.

Yours very truly,

D. S. Johnston
