Mrs. Josephine J. Guilian
1070 N. E. 146th Street
North Miami, Florida 33161

Dear Mrs. Guilian:

This has reference to your 14 August letter regarding the death of your brother, Staff Sergeant Mario J. Yammarino, a casualty of World War II.

Burial records indicate only that Sergeant Yammarino died on 4 November 1944 at the 48th Field Hospital, France, of wounds received in action. His remains were temporarily interred in the U. S. Military Cemetery, Henri-Chapelle, Belgium. After the war, his remains were returned to the United States for permanent interment in accordance with instructions furnished by his father.

You may wish to write to the National Personnel Records Center, GSA, (Military Personnel Records), 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, Missouri 63132 for any information they can furnish. However, in July 1973, vast numbers of military service records (201 files) of World War II members were destroyed by fire at the Center. These records were a valuable source of verification concerning the individual's war record, reports and circumstances of death, and other items.

Sincerely,

Jones

To Whom It May Concern,

On November 3rd 1944 My brother,
Staff Sergeant - 32120556 of the 3rd
Army was hurt in a rest Camp some where in Holland. He died the next day and we (the family) have never known just what happened -
Especially since he was at a rest Camp.

I would like to know in full detail the circumstances of what happened - Did he have a Catholic Priest with him etc. -

I know many years have gone
by but we still want to know every thing —

Thanking you I am

IN REPLY REFER TO

Mr. Joseph Yammario
1822 West 6th Street
Brooklyn, New York

Dear Mr. Yammario:

The Army Effects Bureau has received from overseas some personal effects of your son, Staff Sergeant Mario J. Yammario.

I am inclosing a check for $10.53 representing funds which belonged to him. There is also inclosed a receipt received here with your son's effects, showing that on August 1, 1944 he deposited $100.00 with the Finance Department, APO 257, for transmittal to you. The remainder of the property is being forwarded to you in one carton and one package.

If, by any chance, the property has not reached you at the expiration of thirty days from this date, please notify me and tracer will be instituted.

The action of this Bureau in transmitting personal effects does not, of itself, vest title in the recipient. Such property is forwarded for distribution according to the laws of the state of the soldier's legal residence.

I regret the circumstances prompting this letter, and wish to express my sympathy in the loss of your son.

Yours very truly,

2 Incls--
