The enclosed letter and forms which were addressed to Mary A. Trautwein have been turned over to me for attention. Mrs. Trautwein died more than a year ago and I was, at that time, the attorney for the administratrix of her estate. I did not know Mrs. Trautwein personally nor do I know of any relatives of hers either by blood or marriage. Her estate was administered and my files have since been closed.

To the best of my recollection, the deceased Sergeant John R. Trautwein left him surviving a wife. However, I never did know the name or the address of the said wife except that I do know she is at present receiving benefits under the insurance policy carried by the deceased when he was a member of the Armed Forces. Perhaps you can locate her through the Veterans Administration and find out whether she has any requests for the disposition of the remains of the late sergeant.

Yours truly,

Dear Mrs. Trautwein:

The records in this office have been amended to show you as the next of kin of the above-named decedent, and the person authorized to request disposition of the remains.

There are inclosed informational pamphlets regarding the Return of World War II Dead Program, including a Disposition Form on which you may indicate your wishes in this matter. Upon receipt of the properly completed form, you may be assured that the Department of the Army will attempt to comply with your wishes as indicated thereon.

If you should elect Option 2, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

It is urged that you complete the "Request for Disposition of Remains" form, and return it to this office without delay in order that prompt action may be taken toward the final disposition of the remains. A self-addressed envelope which requires no postage is inclosed for your convenience.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Trautwein:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disinterment and final burial of the heroic dead of World War II. The Quartermaster General of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the honored dead. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlets, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Cemeteries," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship as set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to relinquish your rights to the next in line of kinship, please complete Part II of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please complete Part III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option 2, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Will you please complete the enclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, which requires no postage, within 30 days after its receipt by you? Its prompt return will avoid unnecessary delays.

Sincerely,

THOMAS B. LARKIN
Major General

Dear Mr. Thompson:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disarmament and final trial of the Axis and Axis of World War II. The Congress under the leadership of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the American people. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named persons, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Internees," and "American Citizenship" explain the disposition, claims and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the laws of the United States, you are entitled to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased in accordance with the closed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to retain certain your rights to the next of kin in line of kinship, please complete Form 11 of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please designate here III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option B, it is advised that no financial arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Will you please complete the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, which returns no
