St. Avold (France) U. S. Military Cemetery

Mrs. Evelyn M. Hackett
597 Westfield Avenue
Westfield, New Jersey

Dear Mrs. Hackett:

This is to inform you that the remains of your loved one have been permanently interred, as recorded above, side by side with comrades who also gave their lives for their country. Customary military funeral services were conducted over the grave at the time of burial.

After the Department of the Army has completed all final interments, the cemetery will be transferred, as authorized by the Congress, to the care and supervision of the American Battle Monuments Commission. The Commission also will have the responsibility for permanent construction and beautification of the cemetery, including erection of the permanent headstone. The headstone will be inscribed with the name exactly as recorded above, the rank or rating where appropriate, organization, State, and date of death. Any inquiries relative to the type of headstone or the spelling of the name to be inscribed thereon, should be addressed to the American Battle Monuments Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Your letter should include the full name, rank, serial number, grave location, and name of the cemetery.

While interments are in progress, the cemetery will not be open to visitors. You may rest assured that this final interment was conducted with fitting dignity and solemnity and that the grave-site will be carefully and conscientiously maintained in perpetuity by the United States Government.

Sincerely yours,

H. FELDMAN

Dear Sir:

RE: Burial of Capt. Edward J. Hackett, O-16 92285
Plot B, Row 2, Grave 41, U. S. Military Cemetery
Andilly, France

WFAK
Completing the enclosed affidavit has been even more heart-breaking than accepting the posthumous Distinguished Service Cross. The fact that my husband's remains are in a temporary cemetery made my final decision more difficult, as I feel the dead should be permitted to rest in peace. However, my husband was a physician whose duty it was to save lives, though he sacrificed his own, and I am sure he would be proud to rest with the boys he loved who also made the supreme sacrifice.

I assume the U. S. Military Cemetery at Epinal France must be a new cemetery, and I would very much appreciate your advising me when the final interment has been completed, and the exact location of the grave.

Yours very truly,

Evelyn M. Hackett

Dear Mrs. Hackett:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disinterment and final burial of the heroic dead of World War II. The Quartermaster General of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the honored dead. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlets, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Cemeteries," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship as set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to relinquish your rights to the next in line of kinship, please complete Part II of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please complete Part III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option 2, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Will you please complete the enclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, which requires no postage, within 30 days after its receipt by you? Its prompt return will avoid unnecessary delays.

Sincerely,

THOMAS B. LARKEN

Dear Mrs. Hackett:

The War Department is most desirous that you be furnished information regarding the burial location of your husband, the late Captain Edward J. Hackett, A.S.N. 01 692 285.

293 The records of this office disclose that his remains are interred in the U. S. Military Cemetery Andilly, plot B, row 2, grave 41. You may be assured that the identification and interment have been accomplished with fitting dignity and solemnity.

This cemetery is located fifteen miles northwest of Nancy, France, and is under the constant care and supervision of United States military personnel.

The War Department has now been authorized to comply, at Government expense, with the feasible wishes of the next of kin regarding final interment, here or abroad, of the remains of your loved one. At a later date, this office will, without any action on your part, provide the next of kin with full information and solicit his detailed desires.

Please accept my sincere sympathy in your great loss.

Dear Mrs. Hackett:

This refers to your recent inquiry concerning the personal effects of your husband, Captain Edward J. Hackett.

I am sorry to report that we have no information in regard to Captain Hackett's watch. All the personal effects belonging to him received here were forwarded to you.

So that you may better understand the difficulties encountered in the recovery of personal effects, I am inclosing an information circular on the subject.

With reference to the identification tags about which you inquired, Army Regulations do not provide for the forwarding of those tags to the soldier's family.

I wish to assure you that in the event additional property is received at a later date, it will be forwarded promptly.

Yours very truly,

Gentlemen:

RE: #398080

This is to acknowledge foot locker and three cartons of my husband's personal effects, and to say that the things arrived in excellent condition, and I would like to commend the Quartermaster. At the same time, unless requested, I can't see why you return all that military equipment. The agony of seeing all those army clothes without my fine stalwart husband, was only exceeded by the shock and grief of the War Dept. telegram.

filed

I assume it is the rule.....and I realize army rules must be obeyed. The little personal things that a man carries on his person are the things loved ones want and will treasure, and in my case, I would have liked his watch and his dog tag. I had been advised that it was customary to return one dog tag, but this did not come back. Very few watches are returned, and I suppose in certain circumstances, this is very understandable. However, in my husband's case, I cannot see why the watch was not returned.....as I am familiar with all the details of his death.

Thanking you for any information you can give me, I am

Yours very truly,

Evelyn M. Hackett

Mrs. Evelyn Hackett
597 Westfield Avenue
Westfield, New Jersey

Dear Mrs. Hackett:

The Army Effects Bureau has received from overseas some personal effects of your husband, Captain Edward J. Hackett.

I am inclosing a check for $11.79, representing funds which belonged to him. Also, I am inclosing thirty-two cents in coins, which were included with your husband's effects. The remainder of the property is being forwarded to you in two cartons, and one footlocker.

If, by any chance, the property has not reached you at the expiration of thirty days from this date, please notify me and tracer will be instituted.

The action of this Bureau in transmitting personal effects does not, of itself, vest title in the recipient. Such property is forwarded for distribution according to the laws of the state of the officer's legal residence.

I regret the circumstances prompting this letter, and wish to express my sympathy in the loss of your husband.

Yours very truly,

A. G. SCHUMACHER
