B. The remains of body were reported by ADAMO BUSELLI, an Italian civilian who was acting as guide for our investigation team. The remains were found two kilometres North of Strettoia, Italy, exposed in a shallow hole assumed to be that of a shell crater.

C. During combat elements of the 92nd Infantry Division had held the ground around this vicinity.

D. Two days prior to the arrival of our investigation team to this area, an Italian civilian had his leg blown off by a mine while trying to recover an American rifle that was lying beside the remains of UNKNOWN AMERICAN SOLDIER X-267. The serial number appearing on rifle was given to the men of the investigation team.
