REMARKS:

The remains of the Philippine scouts we recovered in this Barrio who died in action sometimes early of 1942. They were identified by the persons I contacted because at the time he was on patrol in the vicinity, there were three scouts one American and two Filipinos. Among the three Philippine scouts only the American and one Filipino was recovered. The other was totally missing. The place was searched completely that there is no more leads of a U. S. soldier in that vicinity. The body was recovered Sept. 19, 1947.

Dalirig, Maluko, Bukidnon, P.I.
Sept. 19, 1947

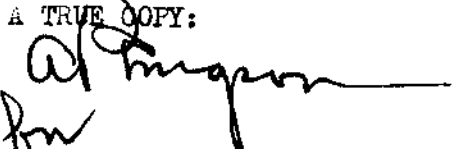

Sub: Statement of Ramon Parollon Concerning two Philippine Scouts.

I, Ramon Parollon, Municipal police of Tankulan, Baluko, Bukidnon, P.I., voluntarily gave all informations and verification concerning the two Philippine scouts who died during the Japanese landing in Mindanao. As a reserved of the Philippine Army and was also inducted into the USAFFE I was stationed in Dalirig during the year 1942 August of that year. While I was patrolling in this locality, I happened to passed the bamboo tree where I saw three bodiess one American and two Filipinos both were members of the Philippine Scouts. I was about five paces from the dead and that I could recognize them clearly. The American has a light brown hair and the body was upside down. The head towards the north and khaki uniform. The two Filipino Scouts was just in the opposite side. These men died May 9, 1942 under the Japanese three days after I was sent on patrol. I didn't touch the bodiess because they were already in bad condition. I should have reported this to the Americans who came here first but I thought they don't look for the Philippine Scouts not until T/Sgt. Tangente who explain me the real meaning of all US Army personnel including the Philippine Scouts. So after he has explained to me everything clearly I directed him and his team to the exact location where these men was recovered at 1100 September 19, 1947.

That on this date, before T/Sgt. Marcial N. Tangente and members of the team I gave my word of honor and in the name of God that this Statement is true with my signature and the other witness affixed hereunder.
