5 September 1951

SUBJECT: World War II Unknowns

TO: Chief, Army Effects Bureau

1. As a result of a survey recently conducted at the Army Effects Bureau by a representative of the Memorial Division, it was found that there are approximately 200 cases of World War II Unknowns for whom personal effects are stored at the Bureau. All information pertinent to identification has been extracted from these effects and a complete inventory has been furnished the Identification Branch of all such effects.

2. Since the World War II Unknown personal effects will be of no further value to the Memorial Division for identification purposes, authority is hereby delegated to the Chief, Army Effects Bureau, to render administrative determinations on disposition of personal effects for World War II Unknowns.

3. A certificate signed by the Chief, indicating reasons for disposal of the property will be placed in the case folder and the case closed.

BY COMMAND OF MAJOR GENERAL FELDMAN:

/s/ C. J. Harrold
/t/ C. J. HARROLD
Colonel, QMC
Chief, Field Service Division

Date 2 Nov 51

This is to certify that an administrative decision has been made to salvage the property in this case for the following reasons:

1. The Army Effects Bureau has received one wedding band recovered as the personal effects found on remains of Unknown decedent X-85, interred in USAF Cemetery No 1, Santa Barbara, Luzon, Grave 2163, Row 41. Inclosed is pertinent overseas inventory and original Graves Registration label covering transmittal of the wedding band.

2. Bureau inspection of the ring failed to reveal any printing or engraving which would be of assistance in establishing the identity of the Unknown decedent. The wedding band has been held at this Bureau as of 21 July 1945, pending report of identification from your office.

3. It is requested that the burial reports available at your office be checked and this Bureau informed whether Unknown decedent has been officially identified. In the event sufficient information is not available at your office to establish the identity of the Unknown decedent, information as to the present status of this case will be appreciated.
