Name: PEDRO PASCUAL Age: 37 years
Address: Malabia, Balanga, Bataan Date: 11 August 1945

This man accompanied the Investigation Party to a barrio called Calero, Balanga, and pointed two shallow dugouts where he alleged eight (8) Americans were buried immediately after the surrender of Bataan. The place is about 20 meters from the Balanga main road in the direction of Abucay, near the bank of a river.

- MR. ALABADO - Were you here in this vicinity during the surrender of Bataan?
- PASCUAL - I was in barrio Malabia. I came down with the refugees from Cabcaben and stayed in Malabia since then.
- A - How did you happen to see the 8 Americans which you claim were buried in this place when your house is quite far from here.
- P - We were then harvesting rice in this rice field (indicating a nearby rice field) and because we could not stand the foul odor emitting from this place we investigated and found the bodies.
- A - How many bodies did you count?
- P - Eight sir.
- A - How did you figure out they were all Americans?
- P - I judged from their west point uniforms, their brown hairs and their high-bridged nose and also their general appearance.
- A - How many of these men were officers?
- P - One of them was a 2nd lieutenant, one a staff sergeant, and the rest privates.
- A - How did you figure that one was a lieutenant?
- P - Because I got a golden bar from him but which I lost during our evacuation.
- A - Did you find any dog tags or personal belongings that could help us identify them in the bodies of the soldiers?
- P - No sir.
- A - Did you inspect the bodies for any personal belongings?
- P - No sir, because they were pretty well decomposed when we found them. We just placed them in airraid shelters and covered them.
- A - What do you think was the probable cause or causes of their death?
- P - We just found the bodies here, so we cannot tell. Presumably they escaped from the death march, hid themselves in these dugouts and died there.

Pedro Pascual - 37 years
Malabia, Balanga, Bataan
11 August 1945

MR. ALABADO - Did you cover the bodies very well?
PASCUAL - Yes sir.
A - Did you count the bodies?
P - Yes sir. We buried four men in each hole.
A - Do you know the names of any of those soldiers?
P - No sir, because we did not inspect their bodies anymore as they were in a high state of decomposition.
